

Independence Center

Project Profile: Specialty

Owner: Independence Center

Architect: George Joahnnes

Description: The Independence Center project was a historic gut rehab of a manufacturing facility in the City of Saint Louis. This 44,000 sq ft facility is the new home for Independence Center's offices, Club House, re-sell shop, and other client based services. This project features restored historic features of the building while replacing all building services and systems.