

University City High School Library Addition

Project Profile: Schools

Owner: Ameresco/University City School District

Architect: Bond Architects, Inc.

Description: This was a new 24,000 SF addition on the north side of the existing University City High School. Construction is block and brick, steel and metal stud with brick veneer and TPO roofing. This addition will house new library stacks, computer stations, open study area, 3 lab rooms, 4 new classrooms and a new elevator.